

National Eating Disorders Awareness Week

Celebrating our natural sizes

The Prince George Eating Disorders Clinic invites you to attend an evening to discover that . . .
It's not our bodies that need changing. It's our attitudes!

Thursday, February 9, 2011, 6:30pm
Keith Gordon Room, Bob Harkins Branch, Prince George Public Library

The evening will include a brief presentation followed by a question-and-answer period and an opportunity to chat one-on-one with the Clinic staff.

We hope you can join us!
